

Name:

Feras D'yab

Project:

E-commerce Dress

Goal of project:

- Reach to the audience they are interested in dresses!
- Women wearing a unique dress for events.
- Make it easier to browse different styles of dresses.

Description & Main features:

This website built to make shopping the dress easier and the girl wear a unique dress for her event. the user can browse the website without login and can make purchase without needed to register. On the other hand, they can register and create an account and enter required information ('Name', 'Email', 'Password', 'Phone Number') .

There are four option in front of user:

- Landing Page: includes nav-bar contain the logo and other pages, the categories on the website, the favourite products, brief to our website and footer contain some information about the company and how to contact us.
- Products Page: Includes the products we have on stock.
- About-us Page: Includes information about our company.
- Contact-us Page: Includes the store address, working hours and mobile number.

There is Admin Dashboard to show all users and add categories, products and admins.

Technologies:

- HTML
- CSS
- Bootstrap
- JavaScript
- Laravel
- MySQL

Conclusion:

It is a website to make the shopping easier to the user and provide them with latest dresses on fashion field.